MONDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1992

PRESENT: JOHN PYLES, President Monongalia County Commission
ELIZABETH MARTIN, Member Monongalia County Commission
FLORENCE MEROW, Member Monongalia County Commission
DEPUTY CLERKS- Betty Tennant, Jodi Maraney, Colleen Skotnicki, Dorothy Pyles, Ann Smith, Kim Rose, and Marvin Drvar

The Board of Canvassers reconvened at 2:00 p.m. on Monday, November 9, 1992, and continued with the comparison of the Tally Sheets and the Certificate of Results.

County Clerk Thelma Gibson presented the Board of Canvassers three (3) unopened absentee ballots that were in the kit from Precinct No. 31. By common consent, the Board of Canvassers ordered these three (3) ballots with the other absentee ballots to be checked. An additional ballot found in the ballot box will also be placed with the other ballots.

County Clerk Thelma J. Gibson presented the voucher for the poll workers, custodians, and polling place rentals for approval advising the Board of Canvassers that all checks have been prepared. A motion was duly made by Commissioner Martin and seconded by Commissioner Merow authorizing the approval of the voucher and that said checks should be forwarded immediately.

The Board of Canvassers completed the comparison of poll tickets and ballots cast at 4:00 p.m. and proceeded to count the total challenged and/or absentee ballots. The total ballots were 570.

The Board of Canvassers directed the County Clerk to prepare a synopsis on the 570 challenged and/or absentee ballots cast, without opening any of the ballot envelopes.

Following are the total votes cast at each Precinct as determined by the Board of Canvassers with the comparison of Poll Tickets and Ballots Counted:
